With his wife, Marilyn, he lived overseas in Haiti and Egypt, where he worked as a doctor and medical teacher. The Millers have lived and worked in India, Cambodia and England. Dr. Miller’s seven years in India as the director of a large community development program provided insights that contributed to the writing of his book “Empowering the Patient.”

A widely recognized group from England, Voces8, will be performing at EMHS on Tuesday, March 2 at 7:30 PM. The concert will benefit the Touring Choir as they travel to Europe this summer. To purchase tickets, please see Ashton Pease or Katrina Anders.

Hesston College presents Common Threads: Anabaptist and African American Songs and Stories of Suffering and Hope at New Song Anabaptist Fellowship, 3156 North Valley Pike, at 10 AM on Sunday, March 14. Common Threads is an exploration of the way Anabaptist religious persecution and African-American racial suffering have intersected. Both groups suffered at the hands of legitimate governments and both found hope in the midst of pain and humiliation. Hesston faculty members Tony Brown (professional baritone and artist in residence) and John Sharp (storyteller and author) will give voice to Anabaptist martyrs and African-American slaves by singing their hymns and telling their stories. A free-will offering will be taken. The public is invited to attend.
